Transfer Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record the following real estate transfer:

April 25 by F. M. Porter and wife to Sarah A. Cooper, for $1,800, lot 41 in the addition laid out by William P. Hubbard and H. M. Russell, special commissioners, on the Island.

Louis Nolte Held.

Last night at the county jail office was the time and place fixed for the hearing of Louis Nolte by Squire Gilles-py on a charge of robbing Zion's Lutheran church. He waived a hearing, however, and was bonded over to court in $500 bail on one charge and $500 on another. He could not give bond and was remanded to jail.

The Arion Youth Dance.

At the Arion hall last evening the young people's german was given, with the Arion's usual success. The attendance was large and the Opera House Orchestra furnished the music. There were several novel features, among them the "Midway Plaisance" opening dance. The committee in charge of the arrangements won much praise. It was composed of Ed W. Stifel, Harry

Muh, Dr. O. W. Burdats, Herman Sea-bright, O. T. Schreiber, Ed H. Vass, F. B.

Klieves, M. K. Mabis and H. H. Ritter.

Counterfeits for the Pen.

Yesterday Deputy U. S. Marshal Garden arrived here from Clarksburg, where the United States court was in session. He brought with him two prisoners who were sentenced to the jail here. One was Ross Evans, who was arrested here for raising a $2 bill to $20 and trying to pass it. He got $200 fine and six months in jail. The other was John Haley, who passed bogus money out in the interior of the state, and who got $200 and three months.

Both plead guilty.

In the Circuit Court.

In Judge Campbell's court yesterday the case of Neill &amp; Ellingham vs. the Rogers Bros. Produce Company, of Santa Barbara, Cal., was on trial.

In Judge Paul's court, in the case of William Larchin vs. the administrator of Mary Ellen Hughes, a verdict was rendered for the defendant.

In the case of McLain &amp; Co. vs. J. E.

Rapp, assignee, a non-suit was taken, the evidence showing the claim was not against the defendant named.

The case of J. E. Rapp, assignee, vs.

C. D. Thompson, was then put on trial.

DR. WEICHEL'S HEARING

Postponed by Squire Gillespy—A Question

Raised.

The preliminary hearing of Dr. Henry Weichsel, on the charge of murder by abortion, was to have been held at the county jail office last night, but it was adjourned by Squire Gillespy until next Monday. Several witnesses the defense wanted were not summoned, and Capt.

Dovener objected to this. The justice held that he or his constable could demand fees for any summons or other service in advance, and the law seems to be to that effect. There was a rather lively passage, and after the justice returned to his office he told an INTELLIGENCER reporter the court would have to settle whether he or Capt. Dovener was right.

The code provides that any impecunious suitor can have all the services needed in any suit free of cost, but Dr.

Weichsel has not claimed the benefit of that clause.

THE MINERS' STRIKE.

Nothing new in the Local Situation—Meeting of Miners.

A convention of coal miners was held at Trades Assembly hall yesterday, and last night the local union met there.

Nothing was done except that the miners who have not heretofore been organized agreed to meet this evening for the purpose of forming a branch of the United Mine Laborers.

There has been a notable scarcity of coal in the Hempfield yards here for the past two days. This may have given rise to the foolish rumor that the Baltimore &amp; Ohio engineers had refused to haul Monongah coal. Inquiries of engineers met with prompt denials that there was any truth in such a story, and a telegram from Fairmont to the INTELLIGENCER said it was untrue.

Monongah coal was shipped west over the Baltimore &amp; Ohio road as usual yesterday, and even in larger quantities.

The London Belles.

At the Grand last evening the London Belles opened an engagement which is to run till Saturday night, with a matinee Saturday. They gave a very entertaining and enjoyable show. The house was crowded and the audience very enthusiastic. "La Danse de Vermeise," by the Perrie family, is a funny, not to say startling, illusion. The performance winds up with "The Crystal Slipper."

The Evolution

Of medicinal agents is gradually re-legating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California

Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all leading druggists.

All kinds of Nursery stock delivered fresh from REID'S NURSERY. Tel. 1415.

BRILLIANT WEDDING

Of Mr. Fisher, of Philadelphia, and Miss Woods, of Mountsville.

CELEBRATED IN TRINITY CHURCH

At Mountsville Yesterday Evening.

The Accomplished Daughter of Rev. Mr. Woods Become the Bride of a Well Known Young Man of the Quaker City—A Beautiful Ceremony.

Pretty Trinity church, Mountsville, was the scene last night of a most brilliant wedding, the high contracting parties being Mr. Christian Frederick Fisher, of Philadelphia, and Moss, the charming and accomplished daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Woods, the rector of the church. Rev. B. M. Sparr officiated. The church was profusely decorated with choice plants and flowers and never before had it witnessed such a lovely and imposing ceremony. Promptly at half past eight to the strains of the march from Lohengrin, beautifully rendered by Miss Bertie Hall, of Mountsville, the ushers, Messrs. John T. Gallaher, of Mountsville, and Fred

King, of Cleveland, led the way down the aisle, followed by the bridesmaids,

Miss Constance Peterkin, of Parkersburg, dressed in white organdie trimmed with green silk and carrying pink roses, and Miss Carrie Loomis, of Parkersburg, dressed in white organdie, trimmed with pink silk and carrying pink roses. Miss Carrie Cockayne, of Mountsville, as maid of honor, was most charming in a rich gown of white or-gandie and white moire, with roses to match. Little Miss Hazel Dillon, of Philadelphia, niece of the groom, was most bewitching as the flower girl, in white china silk; she immediately preceded the bride, who was leaning on the arm of her father, and was dressed in an exquisite gown of white crepe, trimmed with white lace and moire, wearing a tulle veil and carrying an elegant bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bride never looked lovelier, and murmurs of admiration ran through the large assemblage as the pretty picture was completed at the altar by the meeting of the bride and the manly groom, attended by Mr. H. J. Donnelly, of Philadelphia.

After the ceremony the party left the church to the sweet notes of Mendel-sohn's Priests' March, from Athalia.

A reception followed at the palatial home of the bride's parents, on Purdy

Avenue, and was attended by the immediate relatives and a few friends of the happy couple. The presents received were elegant and numerous, and testified abundantly to the high regard of their host of friends. Mr. and Mrs.
